

Douglas Education Center (DEC) Institutional Response to COVID-19 (Coronavirus) -

DEC Plan for Reopening - Coronavirus Update 5.29.20

May 29, 2020 - 3:00pm

Dear DEC Students:

Today PA Governor Tom Wolf announced that Westmoreland County, PA (the county in which DEC is located) will enter the GREEN phase on Friday June 5th, 2020.

- The GREEN phase is the open phase, at which point DEC can be open again.

Safety continues to be our number one priority for every member of our DEC community. We appreciate everyone's understanding and adaptability throughout these troubling and uncertain times. Douglas Education Center will be taking every precautionary measure and doing everything we can to ensure the safety of all DEC students, faculty and administration.

Additional communication for returning students will be sent out via email and text over the next few days. PLEASE KEEP AN EYE OUT FOR THESE UPDATES.

We look forward to welcoming everyone back to campus again. Keep your spirits up, continue to support and look out for one another, and take pride in your education.
